

Congratulations to the 2025-26 “Bob King Award” winners as Boys' Coaches of the Year -- Scott Radeker of Northridge, Andy Weaver of Plainfield and Heath Howington of Barr-Reeve.

District 1

Scott Radeker, Northridge

Scott Radeker is the IBCA District 1 Coach of the Year after leading Northridge to a 26-2 campaign that included a Northern Lakes Conference co-championship as well as titles in the Kokomo/Phil Cox Memorial Tournament, the Elkhart Sectional and Plymouth Regional.

Radeker is 151-53 in eight seasons with the Raiders with previous sectional titles in 2019 and 2020. He has a career record of 368-221 in 25 seasons. That includes a 120-80 ledger in nine seasons at North Montgomery (2001-10) and a 97-88 mark in eight seasons at Lafayette Jefferson (2010-18).

His North Montgomery teams captured Sagamore Conference banners in 2006, 2007 and 2009, Montgomery County Tournaments in 2003, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 as well as sectional trophies in 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2009. His Lafayette Jefferson teams won Journal & Courier Tournament championships in 2011, 2012, 2016 and 2018. His Northridge teams claimed the LaPorte Holiday Tournament in 2023 and 2024 in addition to the Kokomo/Phil Cox Memorial Tournament this season.

Radeker was an assistant coach for the 2018 Indiana All-Stars. He is a three-time Northern Lakes Conference Coach of the Year (2020, 2024, 2026) and was the 2019 Elkhart Truth Coach of the Year. He also served as an IBCA district representative from 2011-14.

A 1987 graduate of Unatego High School in New York, Radeker was an all-conference player and team MVP. He matriculated to the State University of New York at Cortland, where he played two seasons of basketball and earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1991. He later earned a master's degree in education from Walden University in 2001.

He began his coaching career while in college, serving as an assistant at Cortland (N.Y.) high school from 1989-92. He then moved to Indiana, working as a substitute teacher at Ben Davis in 1992-93 before an eight-year stint as a teacher and boys' basketball assistant coach at Noblesville for Pete Smith and Dave McCollough.

Radeker is in his 33rd year as a teacher and currently teaches health, leadership and preparing for college and careers at Northridge.

He and his wife, Robyn, have two children – Kendra, 23, and Kam, 19.

District 2

Andy Weaver, Plainfield

Andy Weaver is the IBCA District 2 Coach of the Year after guiding Plainfield to a 22-3 season that included championships of the Mid-State Conference and the Hendricks County Tournament.

Weaver compiled a 196-137 record in 14 seasons with the Quakers with a sectional title in 2021, the school's first since 1999. He compiled an overall ledger of 422-313 in 32 seasons. That included an 18-45 record in three seasons at Pioneer (1994-97) and a 208-131 mark in 15 seasons at Western (1997-2012).

He has announced that he is retiring at the end of 2025-26.

Over the years, Weaver's teams won six additional sectionals and one regional in 2004 at Western. His teams also captured 11 conference championships (six at Western, five at Plainfield) and six County Tournament crowns (five at Western, one at Plainfield).

Weaver was a 2010 Indiana All-Star assistant coach. He previously was an IBCA district Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2021, and he is a five-time Mid-State Conference Coach of the Year (2020, 2021, 2023, 2025 and 2026). He also served as an IBCA district representative from 2023-26.

A 1984 graduate of Clinton Prairie, Weaver averaged about 12.0 points, was named first-team all-RangeLine Conference, IBCA honorable mention Academic All-State and CPHS valedictorian as a senior. He went on to play one season at Manchester University, then transferred to Purdue, where he earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1989. He later earned a master's degree in secondary administration and supervision from Purdue in 1997.

Weaver began his career as a teacher and coach in 1989 at Carroll (Flora). He was a freshman coach there for one season and JV coach for four seasons prior to his first head coaching position at Pioneer in 1994-95.

He is in his 37th year as a math teacher, and he currently teaches Advanced Placement Statistics and Algebra 2.

Weaver and his wife, Shelly, have three children – Bryce, 21, and 17-year-old twins, Michael and Madison.

District 3

Heath Howington, Barr-Reeve

Heath Howington is the IBCA District 3 Coach of the Year after directing Barr-Reeve to a 28-1 season that included a Class A state championship. Along the way, his Vikings won the Blue Chip Conference, the Loogootee Sectional, the Washington Regional and the Washington Semi-State.

Howington has an overall record of 182-158 in 14 seasons as a head coach. He previously went 83-113 with one Pocket Athletic Conference title in eight seasons at North Posey (2012-20) and 71-44 with one sectional crown in five seasons at Evansville Memorial (2020-25). This was his first season at Barr-Reeve.

He has been named an assistant coach for the 2026 Junior All-Stars.

Howington is a 2002 graduate of Evansville Reitz, where he was a varsity letterman as a senior, was named two-time Academic All-City and played four seasons for coach Michael Adams. He attended the University of Southern Indiana, earning bachelor's degrees in business education and marketing in 2007. He later earned a master's degree in education from Indiana Wesleyan University in 2012.

He started his career as a teacher in 2007-08 at Eastern Greene, where he was a basketball assistant to Andy Igel. Howington followed by assisting J.R. Holmes at Bloomington South from 2008-11, being on staff for the 2009 and 2011 Class 4A state champions. Howington then assisted Bryan Speer at Evansville Harrison in 2011-12 before becoming a head coach at North Posey in 2012-13.

Howington currently teaches business and advanced physical education at Barr-Reeve, where he also serves as the Vikings' unified track coach.

He and his wife, Megan, have four children – Trey, 11, Ty, 8, and Turner, 2.

IBCA/BOB KING AWARD – BOYS' COACH OF THE YEAR WINNERS

The Indiana Basketball Coaches Association has presented Coach of the Year Awards since 1971. These awards are named for Bob King, a former executive director of the organization who also spent years on the Purdue University men's basketball coaching staff and later served as an assistant athletic director at Purdue. He played and then coached basketball and football for 13 years at Indianapolis Shortridge and is a graduate of Butler University. He was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame in 1986. Honorees generally were selected one per district in five districts from 1971 through 2003, two per district in three districts from 2004-2022, and one per district in three districts starting in 2023. The boys' awards started in the 1970-71 season. The girls' awards started in the 1983-84 season.
