HEAD COACHING VACANCY

Greenwood Community High School is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Head Girls Basketball Coach for the Lady Woodmen program.

Greenwood competes in Class 4A and is a member of the Hoosier Legends Conference, providing an excellent opportunity to lead a competitive program with strong community and school support.

QUALIFICATIONS

The head coach will be responsible for leading and developing all aspects of the girls basketball program, including:

- Building a positive, competitive, and student-centered culture
- Developing student-athletes both on and off the court
- Coordinating the high school program and supporting development at the sub-varsity levels
- Promoting academic success, sportsmanship, and character
- Collaborating with school administration, athletic staff, and the Greenwood community

Candidates should demonstrate strong leadership, communication, and organizational skills, along with a commitment to mentoring student-athletes and growing the Lady Woodmen basketball program.
